2025 Bible Reading Plan

The New Testament

We may not know what changes are in store for 2025, but some things will most assuredly stay the same – God’s word and God’s faithfulness. Let’s make it a priority to read God’s word each week during 2025. The Bible reading plan for OSL this year combines two things – reading and journaling through the entire New Testament.

Bible journaling may be a new concept for some. It is simply this: writing down what you are hearing or what you think the author is saying and then writing down ways to apply what you have just read. This type of time spent in God’s word allows for greater retention of scripture, deeper meditation upon scripture, and more thoughtful personal application of scripture. Bible journaling through the entire New Testament will also give you the opportunity to put together notes all in one place for reference any time.

The schedule for this reading plan includes 5 chapters each week, which leaves a couple of days for “catching up” in case of a missed day or for worship or even just to re-read some of your favorite passages from the week.

If you come across something that puzzles you or raises questions, we would love to talk about those with you. Feel free to email or ask us about the Bible anytime.

May God bless our time in His word as we learn, live, and share Christ in the Year of our Lord 2025.

In Him,
